MEDIA ADVISORY
For Immediate Release

FORT WORTH PD HONORS FALLEN SGT. JON JENSON WITH END OF WATCH RIDE

The Fort Worth Police Department, in conjunction with the End of Watch Organization, will honor the service and sacrifice of Sgt. Jon Jenson with a special tribute. The End of Watch Ride is a mobile honor wall that travels across the country to honor the men and women of law enforcement who paid the ultimate sacrifice. The event is open to the community. Media representatives are invited to cover the event to raise awareness about the sacrifices made by our law enforcement officers and the importance of supporting their families and departments.

WHAT: End of Watch Ride Honoring Sgt. Jon Jenson, Fort Worth Police Department
WHO: End of Watch Organization and Fort Worth Police Department
WHEN: Friday, June 14, 2024 at 5:00 p.m.
WHERE: North Division Patrol, 8755 North Riverside Dr., Fort Worth, Texas 76244

BACKGROUND:

The End of Watch Ride aims to ensure that no officer is forgotten. They strive to make sure their families know their loved ones have not been forgotten and to provide recognition, support, and understanding to help them heal. Additionally, we support department safety and training to help reduce the number of fallen officers each year.
